

Lions

Lions are called the kings of the jungle. They are the second largest big cat in the world. Lions mostly live in grasslands and savannahs.

Lions live in a group called a pride. Their offspring is called a cub.

Lions hunt at night. Lions like to eat large animals like zebras, antelopes, and wildebeest. Lions are brave, they don't fear other animals.

Questions:

1. Where do lions live?

2. When do lions hunt?

3. What is the lion's offspring called?
