What descriptive language was used to describe Goldilocks?

What descriptive language is used to describe Little Red?

How might you describe the three bears in this story? (not just their appearance, think about their personalities)

How might you describe Grandma in this story? (not just her appearance, think about her personality)

What was the problem in this story? Was there more than just one?

Can you list at least three things that happened in the middle of the story?

How is this story the same as the original Goldilocks story?

How is this story different from the original ones?

twinkl.com

How is this story the same as the original Little Red Riding Hood story?

How do you think the story should have ended? What would you like to change?

How do you think Grandma might have felt when the Wolf showed up at her door?

How do you think the Three Bears would have reacted when they returned home to find their baked goods all missing?