

Chapter 13: A Trogglehumper for the Fleshlumpeater

Day 1 (AF2) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What does ‘grotesque’ mean? 2. How long do giants sleep for? 3. Describe how the BFG uses his equipment to give the Fleshlumpeater a bad dream. 4. Which word on page 84 means jerky movements that can’t be controlled? Challenge: Write an email to Jack (of the beanstalk) requesting that he comes to visit Giant Country to sort the giants out.	Day 2 (AF3) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The BFG ‘trotted off for about a hundred yards, then he stopped. He crouched low to the earth’. Why do you think he did that? 2. What does the Fleshlumpeater think of Jack? 3. Did Sophie support the BFG’s actions in this chapter? Use evidence to explain how you know. Challenge: Interview a giant who thinks he saw a glimpse of Jack (the giant killer) in the distance.
Day 3 (AF4/5) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The author writes, ‘they covered an area about the size of a football field,’ when he describes the sleeping giants. How does this help us to understand the giants? 2. Why do you think the author chooses the verb ‘sprawled out’ to describe the giants? Challenge: Draw a ‘WANTED’ poster featuring one of the giants. Advertise a reward for anyone who can capture him.	Day 4 (AF6/7) ‘Sophie couldn’t stop smiling’. Why is Sophie amused and what does she and the reader know that the giants do not? Challenge: Imagine the giants were captured and held in a giant zoo. What would you call the zoo? What would the attractions at the zoo be? What snacks would you be able to buy? What rides and shows would there be to enjoy?
