

Spelling 1

Fill in the blank with these words

Courage - Cookery - Achievement - Cousin - Trumpet - Outstanding - Flourish - Scruffy – Nourish - Slavery - Campaign - Organization - Touch – Recognised - Promoting

1. It takes a lot of Courage to stand up for what you believe in.
2. My favorite board game to play with my Cousin is Monopoly.
3. The garden Flourished with colorful flowers after heavy rain.
4. The musician proudly held the golden Trumpet after winning the competition
5. He wore a Scruffy hat and mismatched socks, reflecting his artistic personality.
6. Eating healthy foods Nourishes your body and keeps you strong.
7. I learned baking techniques from my grandma's amazing _____ skills.
8. A gentle Touch on the shoulder can offer comfort and support.
9. The fight to end Slavery is a continuous struggle for equality and freedom.
10. Reaching your academic Achievement feels rewarding and motivates you to learn more.
11. Her Outstanding performance in the play earned her a standing ovation.
12. A good Organization skills help you stay focused and achieve your goals.
13. The political Campaign raised awareness about environmental issues.
14. He is Promoting recycling in his community to protect the environment.
15. Her contributions to science were finally Recognized with a prestigious award.

Spelling 2

Fill in the blank with these words

Pleasure – Enclosure - Underexposure – Treasure - Leisure - Disclosure - Pure - Exposure
- Fissure – Composure - Pressure – Closure - Cure – Measure - Injure

1. Spending time with loved ones brings me great Pleasure
2. We used a ruler to Measure the length of the table.
3. My grandmother's locket is a Treasure she keeps close to her heart.
4. The park has a large Enclosure for the animals.
5. The detective's investigation brought Closure to the case.
6. Despite the chaos, she maintained her Composure
7. Reading a book is a perfect way to spend my Leisure time.
8. The photo was blurry due to Exposure/underexposure
9. Getting sunshine is good for your Pressure/composure
10. The company made a full Disclosure of the data breach.
11. A small Fissure formed in the cracked sidewalk.
12. The deadline is causing a lot of Pressure at work.
13. The water from the mountain spring is Pure and refreshing.
14. The doctor is hopeful that they can find a Cure for the disease.
15. Be careful not to Injure yourself while playing sports.

Spelling 3

Fill in the blank with these words

Supermarket – subdivide – subclass – superbug – subsections - superheated – supercharged – substandard – submarine – submerged - superimposed – subsections – superheated - subtropical - subcontinent

1. I went to the Supermarket to pick up some milk and eggs.
2. We can further Subdivide the project into smaller, more manageable tasks.
3. Humans are a Subclass of mammals.
4. The metal was Superheated in the furnace, reaching incredible temperatures.
5. The new strain of bacteria is a dangerous Superbug, resistant to most antibiotics.
6. He Supercharged his car with a performance upgrade, boosting its engine power.
7. The artist Superimposed two photographs to create a unique and layered image.
8. The Submarine silently glided beneath the waves, undetected by its enemies.
9. The diver completely Submerged herself in the crystal-clear ocean.
10. The product received negative reviews for its Substandard quality.
11. India is a vast Subcontinent, teeming with diverse cultures and landscapes.
12. The region enjoys a pleasant Subtropical climate, with warm summers and mild winters.
13. (Removed as duplicate)
14. The research paper included several detailed Subsections to support its arguments.

Spelling 5

Fill in the blank with these words

skunk – cake – anchor - orchestra - scheme - Technology - character's - chaos - mechanic - chemistry - monarch – stomach - echoed - kite - chord

1. The Skunk scurried across the road, leaving a pungent odor in its wake.
2. The Monarch butterflies fluttered gracefully through the garden, their wings shimmering orange and black.
3. The captain dropped the Anchor , securing the ship firmly in the harbor.
4. She loved Chemistry experiments, mixing colorful solutions and observing their reactions.
5. The children laughed as their colorful Kite danced in the wind.
6. The Character's bravery and kindness made him a hero in the story.
7. We gathered around the table, singing and enjoying a delicious slice of Cake .
8. The city was in Chaos after the power outage, with traffic lights out and people panicking.
9. The Orchestra filled the concert hall with a powerful and moving performance.
10. Technology has transformed the way we communicate, work, and entertain ourselves.
11. Her voice Echoed through the empty hallway, creating an eerie feeling.
12. He felt a rumble in his Stomach , reminding him it was lunchtime.
13. The villain's Scheme to steal the treasure was elaborate and almost successful.
14. The guitarist strummed a beautiful Chord , creating a warm and inviting melody.
15. The skilled Mechanic quickly diagnosed the problem with the car and fixed it in no time.

Spelling 5

Mismatched - Discourage - Disobey – Misjudge – Misunderstanding - Disagree -
Disgraceful - Dishonest - Disapproval - Miscalculated – Dissatisfied - Misspell -
Misshaped – Misbehaving - Misguided

1. When socks of different colors and patterns are worn together, they look Mismatched.
2. To write a word with incorrect letters is to Misspell.
3. If something is bent, twisted, or out of its normal form, it might be considered Misshapen.
4. When children act unruly or break the rules, they are Misbehaving.
5. If you follow bad advice or instructions, you might be acting Misguided.
6. To underestimate or overestimate someone's abilities or character is to Misjudge.
7. When someone interprets something the wrong way, there's a Misunderstanding.
8. To have different opinions or viewpoints means you Disagree with someone.
9. When someone tries to take away your confidence or enthusiasm, they are trying to Discourage.
10. To ignore or break rules set by someone in authority is to Disobey.
11. Behavior that is considered rude, offensive, or shameful is Disgraceful.
12. Someone who tells lies or cheats is being Dishonest.
13. A frown or a disappointed look can express Disapproval.
14. If you make an error in your calculations, you have Miscalculated.
15. If you are not happy with something or it doesn't meet your expectations, you are Dissatisfied.